West River was opened as far as Wuchow-fu, | Chinese official is the curse of China. the French have endeavoured to minimise the advantages conferred on Canton and Hongkong.- All their schemes for railways across the Tonkin frontier are directed to intercepting the trade of Yunnan and Kwangsi on the West River, and to divert Goods per Irene undelivered after this it into French channels. Hitherto, the Chinese have not taken kindly to Tonkin trade routes; let them charm ever Goods per Radnorshire undelivered after | so sweetly the French cannot persuade the Goods per Marquis Macqueh mundeliver. Chinese that Tonkin tariffs and Tonkincustoms are more desirable than the native equivelents. The sellers of native produce want something more than a route to the ocean. They want free markets where they may dispose of their goods at favourable prices, markets in which it is advantageous to sall, and where the obsence of prohibitive, discriminating tariffs, such a our neighbouring French Colonial Governments impose, permits of the purchase of foreign commodities at a profitable margin for the native trader. Hongkong will always hold a marked advantage over any of the Tonkin markets, and

There was a time when a light railway from Pakhoi to Nauning-fu, or, for choice, to Pingtong a little below Nanning fu, would have been a profitable speculation. So long as the West River was closed to oreign trade, so long as the belt of lekin houses stretching across the Kwangtung delta were permitted to levy extertionate The s. s. imposts on outward and inward commerce, would have been an immense advantage; but now that commerce is carried on under fairer conditions the need for this railway is gone, except in so far as facilities for rapid transit and transport are desirable in all ports of China. The railway was a pet project of Mr E. L. B. Allen, formerly British Consul at Pakhoi. If we are not mistaken, after the opening of the West River, he admitted the necessity for the railway had disappeared. At any rate, Mr Wilkinson, at present Acting Consul at Pakhoi, writes in his report just to hand, 'As regards the proposed railway herewhich should connect Pakhoi with Nanning, a distance of some 90 miles—there The C. M. Co.'s the steamer Chingron, never was much prospect of its construction, and the opening of the West River will postpone it indefinitely.' As far as can be judged from the experience of the past few years it is evident that Pakhoi's importance as a Treaty Port is on the wane. At one time, Pakhoi was the chief port for commerce between southeast Yunnan, the region enclosed by the Red and West Rivers, and Hongkong. The development of Tonkin routes has diverted a nortion of the trade, although the wonder is that with the great natural advantages the Red River route confers on Tonkin the Pakhoi trade has not been entirely obliterated. Nevertheless, the change has affected Pakhoi very seriously. Mr Wilkinson states that the trade of Mengtes done in 1896 was valued at 1,627,036 hals, of which no less then 95 per cent, came from Hongkong. The imports at Pakhoi in 1897 were valued at Tis. 2,687,185, the lowest on record since 1896 when the ligares were Tis. 1017,635. The hearing of this appeal from the derision of His Hon. the Chief Justice and assessors in the consolidated suits arising out of the Kipanglee-Powan collision we

Mr J. J. Francis (instructed by Mr I . Dennys) appeared for the China Steam Navigation Co., owners of the Kwandlee: Mr H. E. Pollock (instructed by Messrs Deacen and Hastings) appeared for the Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamship Co., owners of the Pourin.

Mr Francis, in summing up the case for the appellants, said that the Porcas just before the collision, was inside and to the South of the line and nearer to the Hongkong shore side of the fairway that she usually occupied in the fairway, but the respondents said that the nearness to the launch. There was no allegation the the Powen's getting out of her use course was in any way due to absence, of a stern light on Kacangles or the obscuring of the greet light at the end of the wharf. There was no allegation that it was the absence of the stern light that brought the Powan inte her unusual position nearer the Hongkong shore. The only questions their Lordship had to decide was whether or not the Kwangles should on that night have carried a stern light, and if the Kwanglee ought to have carried a stern light, did her neglect to carry such light contribute to such collision? At this point, Mr Francis asked the Court to dispose of the questions which had been raised on both sides as to the findings of the Court below and give judgment defining what in their Lordship's felt themselves justified in dealing with questions arising in the Court below.

Mr Pollock also addressed the Court. Judgment was reserved,

THE BRITISH AND FOREIGN BIBLE SOCIETY IN CHINA.

As all thinking Christians, whatever betheir creed, are interested more or less, the Church's efforts to introduce Christianity into China, I venture to offer the following interesting facts, which will present an epitome of the good work done by the above mentioned Society in the Far East from the recently printed Report of the China Agency, which is under the control of the Rev. G. H. Bondfield. It would appear that the issues for the year reached the large total of 761,901 books of 1896.' Of this vast total, there were 44% complete Bibles, 26,868 New Testaments, and 730,597 portions. These last ish, and read in French by Dr Santos, are mostly separate gospels, though other suitable books of the Scriptures are printed and circulated. The marked advance of conferred upon me is so unexpected that I the issues for 1890 were only 168,234.

The books actually circulated during the current year appear to be 567,012, an inour of the agency as free grants. Therefore the actual number of books sold-for the most part to the Chinese—is 531,839. . It is, a gratifying thought to all the interested directly or indirectly in mission work, that no less than 18,576 complete indicate a great change in the attitude of educated men in China who can read, and are willing to buy a complete New Testament. It has been obvious to many that lately the minds of thoughtful Chinese are undergoing change, silently and at first almost imper. centibly, as the frozen surface of icy soas are influenced by the warm nouth winds, These figures corrobonite what many earnest minds have balloved, and warrant them in hoping for and anticipating greater

MR SPENCER PRATT AND THE PHILIPPINOS OF SINGAPORE.

AN ADDRESS OF CONCRATULATION. On the 8th inst., a numerous deputation. consisting of all the Philippines resident in Singapore, waited upon the American Cambal-General, Mr Sponcer Pratt, at his residence, at Singapore, and presented him with an address, congratulatory of the American successes in the present war, and expressive of the thanks of the Philippino community there for the aid now being given by the United States to the aspirations of the Philippine people for national freedom. There were also present Mr W. G: St Clair, Editor of the Singapore Free Press, Mr A. Reid, Editor of the Struits Times, and Mr Howard W. Bray, whose active sympathies with the Philippino nation are so well-known as to entitle him to be styled 'Aguinaldo's Englishman.' Mr Spencer Fratt and Mr Bray both wore the badge of the Liga Philipping, presented to them by General Aguinaldo during his incognito visit to Singapore. After Mr Bray had performed the ceremony of introducing the deputation to Consul-General Pratt, Dr Santos, the chief Philippine refugee there, who has been educated at Barcelona and Paris, delivered the address of which the following is a translation ;-

The Hon. EDWARD SPENCER PRATT, Consul General of the United States of North America

Singapore. Sir, -The Philippino Colony resident in this port, composed of representatives of all social classes, have come to present their respects to you as the legitimate representative of the great and powerful American gratitude for the moral and material protecwho has been driven to take up arms in the name of eight millions of Philippines in defence of those very principles of justice and liberty of which your country is the forement-champion. Our countrymen at home, and those of us residing here, refugees from Spanish misrule and tyranny in our beloved hative land, hope that the United States, your 'nation, persovering in its humane policy, will efficaciously second the programme arranged between you, Sir, and General Aguinaldo in this port of Singapore, and secure to us our independence under the protection of the United States.

Our warmest thanks are especially due to you, Sir, personally, for having been the first to cultivate relations with General Aguinaldo, and arrange for his co-operation during the year 1897. These data are taken, with Admiral Dewey, thus supporting our aspirations which time and subsequent actions have developed and caused to meet with the applause and approbation of your nation.

Finally we request you to convey to your Plustrious President and the American people, and to Admiral Dewey, our sentian advance of 282,364 on the figures | ments of sincere gratitude and our most fervent wishes for their prosperity. Singapore 8 June, 1898.

The address, which was written in Spanthe spokesman, was replied to in French by Mr Spencer Pratt, to the following effect :-- Gentlemen, the honour you have recent years is evident when we say that to thank you, with which to reply to the eloquent address you have just read to me. Rest assured however, that I fully unde stand and sincerely appreciate the motives that have prompted your present action, create on the year of 200,665 books. Of and that your words, which have sunk peated to the President, to Admiral Dowey, and to the American people, from whom I am sure that they will meet with full and generous response. A little over a month ago the world resounded with the praise of Admiral Dewey and his fellow officers and men, for a glorious victory won by the American Asiatio squadron in the Bay of Manila. To-day, we have the news of the New Testaments have been circulated brilliant achievements of your own disduring the year. In 1890, the number tinguished leader, General Emilio Againaldo, co-operating on land with the Americans at sea. You have just reason to be proud of what has been end is being accomplished by General Aguinaldo, and your follow-muntrymon under his command. When, six vecks ago, I learned that General Agains do had arrived the cognico in Singaporo, I immodiately singh him out. An hours interview convinced. me that he was the man for the opposion, and having communitated with Admiral Dewey, I accordingly arranged for him to join the latter, which he did at Cavita. The rest you know I am thankful to have been the means, though pierely the accidental means, of bringing about the errangement between General Aguingldo and Admiral Dewey, which has resulted so happily. I can only hope that the eventual outcome will be all that can be desired for the happiness and welfare of the Philips pinos. My parting words to General Aguinaldo, were General, when you have proved yoursell great, prove yourself magnanimous,' and rom the generous treat.

ment that we understand he has accorded to the Spanish prioners, taken in the recent fight, he has cone so. (Applause,) Dr Santos then addressing his fellow countrymen (Paysanos) called for successive vivus for the President of the United States. for Admi a Dawey, and for Consul General Pratt; for England, the nation hospi-Hongkongites naturally turn to the ser- taliere, and for the Editors of the Singapore Free Press and Straits Times Consul-General Pratt called for 'Vivas' for General Againaldo and the Philippino people. Hongkong Tides. The Tide Table given below has been compiled by the Nautical Almanac Office in London from the result of the analysis of observations taken by means of an automatic tide recording machine in the Water Police Basin at Tsım Sha Tsui during the years 1887-8-9. The zero, of the table is Low Water Ordinary Spring Tides, which has been found to be 2 feet below mean sea level. To obtain the depth of water on the tide gauge at the Victoria Naval Yard add 5 ft. 7 in., and on the gauge at Lamout Dock, Aberdeen, add 12 ic. v in. the height given in the table.

A CONVENIENT BROTHER: It is a serious offence for a German soldier to appear in public except in uniform, even when he is on furlough. He must always wear his uniform. A certain Lieutenant Schmidt, who was engaged in some adventure or other, dressed up as a civilian, was having a fine time of it, when, on turning a corner, he unexpectedly met his colonel, Lieutement Schmidt, however, did not lose his presence of mind. He prefended that he had never seen his colonel before, and, in a changed voice, asked :

Schmidt lives? I am his brother from the country, and am paying him a little visit. The colonel gave the desired information, and Lieutenant Schmidt hurried home and got into his uniform as soon as possible He-thought he had deceived his superior officer; but next day, when he met his colonel, the latter said : Lieutement Schmidt, if your brother from the country pays you snother visit, I'll have him placed in close confinement

YOU CANNOT OVERSTATE ITS CREAT VALUE IN KEEPING THE BLOOD PURE AND TREE FROM DISEASE. AS an illustration of the beneficial effects of ENO'S FRUIT SALT, I have no hesitation in giving the particulars of the case of one of my friends. SLUGGISH ACTION of the LIVER and BILIOUS HEADACHE affected him, so he was obliged to live upon only a few articles of diet, and to be most sparing in their use. This did nothing in effecting a cure, although persevered in for twenty-five years, and also consulting eminent-members of the faculty. By the use of ENO'S · FRUIT SALT' he now ENJOYS VIGOROUS HEALTH; he his NEVER had a HEADACHE or CONSTIPATION since he commenced to use it, about six months ago, and can partake of his food to the great satisfaction of bimself and friends.
